BOOK SYNOPSIS

After witnessing her mother's murder at the age of ten, Cashmere-known as Cash, inherits the brothel her mother left behind. A beautiful and feisty girl, Cash quickly learns the ins and outs of the upscale escort agency, Living Lavish Enterprises, leaving Brian-known as Brains, her mother's former lover and pimp, impressed at how well she handles the business. Living Lavish Enterprises, or L.L.E., poses as one of the nation's largest staffing placement agencies, headquartered in Los Angeles. Cashmere works her way up to the top Madame spot in the agency's L.A. regional office, the leading enterprise in the escort industry. Building her stellar team of professionals was not an easy task. She strategically built her lineup from scratch, recruiting resources from all different races, cultures and walks of life. Her goal was to mold her troop of beautiful women into the most desirable, intelligent, no-nonsense "hoes" in the game. They certainly brought that goal to fruition by earning Living Lavish Enterprises millions, in a matter of months. Cashmere is in charge of keeping the enterprise running smoothly. She does this by constructing a cunning smokescreen to show that their establishment, L.L.E., is legitimate as possible. The enterprise's top girls disguise themselves as executives of the diverse placement divisions: The Accounting Firm, Talent Agency, Athletic Department, Party Promoters and Housekeeping. Additionally, Cashmere owns and operates an upscale boutique, which accumulates hefty revenue of its own, within months of its grand opening, and the cash flow doesn't stop there. Pulling double duty, as a deceptively beautiful hired assassin, Cash conspires to take over the enterprise, earning power and respect, by targeting those considered untouchable. Taking out the key orchestrator within the enterprise is an extremely difficult task, but there's nothing more challenging for Cash, than pretending to love and adore the man that took her mother's life. He feigned grief while placing a blood-red rose inside of her mother's casket, before it was sealed. This rose serves as the catalyst for Cashmere's big plans of vengeful retribution.
